08/08/2014	153	ORDER denying 99 Motion to Dismiss. This case is still in discovery and, at this stage, counterclaim plaintiffs have established prima facie case for personal jurisdiction over counterclaim defendant Performance Sailcraft Pty. Ltd. ("PSA") by alleging that PSA has directed sales of its products into Connecticut. See Dorchester Fin. Sec., Inc. v. Banco BRJ, S.A. , 722 F.3d 81, 84-85 (2d Cir. 2013) (per curiam) (noting that, "[p]rior to [the completion of] discovery, a [party]... may defeat [a] motion [to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction] by pleading in good faith, legally sufficient allegations of jurisdiction"). It is of no consequence that PSA has introduced an affidavit claiming that it has no contacts with Connecticut because "where the issue [of personal jurisdiction] is addressed on affidavits, all allegations are construed in the light most favorable to the [party asserting jurisdiction] and doubts are resolved in [its] favor, notwithstanding a controverting presentation by the [party moving to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction]." A.I. Trade Fin., Inc. v. Petra Bank , 989 F.2d 76, 79-80 (2d Cir. 1993). Counterclaim plaintiffs have introduced affidavits indicating that PSA has ample contacts with Connecticut to establish jurisdiction here and, at this time, I must resolve this factual dispute in favor of counterclaim plaintiffs. This ruling, however, is without prejudice to PSA's renewal of its motion to dismiss at any time on or before November 24, 2014, based on evidence developed during the course of ongoing discovery in this action and based upon a hearing if requested by PSA to consider witness testimony on the issue of PSA's contacts with Connecticut. It is so ordered. Signed by Judge Jeffrey A. Meyer on 8/8/2014. (Norman, D.) (Entered: 08/08/2014)
08/08/2014	154	ORDER denying counterclaim defendant's 133 Motion to Strike in view of the Court's 153 ruling denying counterclaim defendant's 99 Motion to Dismiss. Signed by Judge Jeffrey A. Meyer on 8/8/2014. (Norman, D.) (Entered: 08/08/2014)
